

Andre F. Regard
Occidental Thoroughbreds
Paris, Kentucky

Andre Regard has been involved in the thoroughbred industry as a breeder, farm owner, boarding farm operator, sales consignor and equine attorney for the last 14 years.

During that time he and wife, Trish, have built Occidental Thoroughbreds from a one- horse stable to a 250- acre boarding operation. The Regards also manage various broodmare and racing partnerships. In addition, Andre has been very involved in the formation and operation of the Kentucky Equine Education Project and currently serves on the Board of Directors and is the Treasurer of the KEEP Political Action Committee. Andre is also an equine attorney and has served as the past chair of the Kentucky Equine Bar Section. Andre grew up in Louisiana, attended undergraduate and law school at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. and served in the United States Navy prior to moving to Kentucky in 2000.

Personal Statement:

As a member of the Breeders' Cup Board, Andre will bring the perspective of a small breeder and working farm operator and intends to focus on revenue growth, marketing, and further development of the stakes program if elected.
