

George Isaacs
Bridlewood Farm
Ocala, Florida

George Isaacs has been involved in the Thoroughbred industry for over 32 years principally as a farm manager. He has been general manager of Bridlewood Farm since 1996.

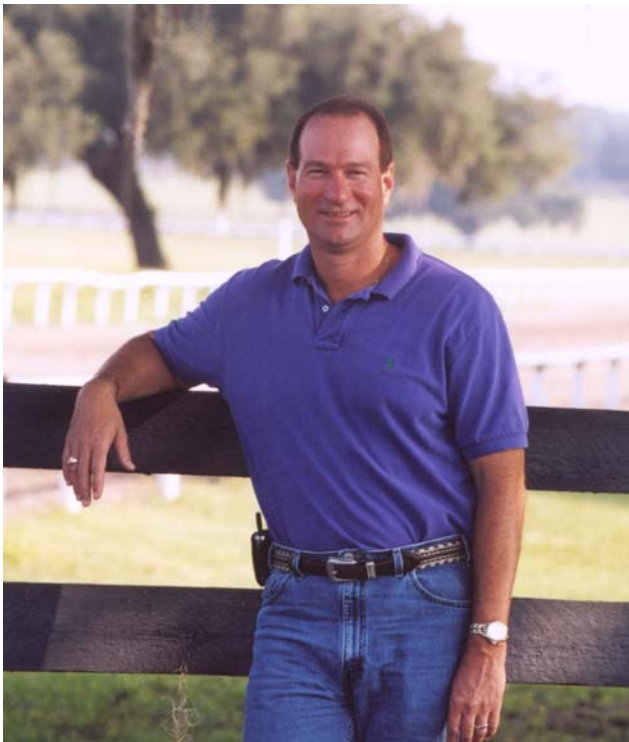

The farm can boast of many accomplishments. Bridlewood is the proud owner and breeder of Florida Horse of the Year and G1 winner FORBIDDEN APPLE. The achievements of his illustrious dam NORTH OF EDEN earned her the title of Florida Broodmare of the Year. The dam of three G1 winners already and runners in excess of $6.2 million, NORTH OF EDEN is a distinguished member of Bridlewood's broodmare band and her son FORBIDDEN APPLE is a member of the Bridlewood Farm Stallion Roster.

Bridlewood Farm is the breeder of close to a hundred stakes winners thus far, many of them graded, and their homebreds have earned in excess of $50 million.

Isaacs is currently a director of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders and Owners Association, Treasurer of Florida Thoroughbred Farm Managers, Inc., and is chair of the Central Florida Community College – Equine Studies Program.

Personal Statement:

I would like to see the Florida breeding industry well represented on the Board of the Breeders' Cup and aid in the process of strong positive change for the program and the World Championships event.
